

HOME OF THE RAIDERS

ENFIELD, CONNECTICUT

Our time at Enfield High School is rapidly coming to an end; we have watched the years pass into months, and the months became days. As we prepare to graduate, we know that we are closing the door on the past and entering the world of the future. The path into the future is uncertain, but we will draw strength from the knowledge we have, the friendships we have shared, and the memories we gathered have made here at Enfield High. We will enter the world with our minds full of pride and our hearts full of hope. The best of luck to the graduating class of 1995!

DEDICATION

She is a lover of Emily Dickinson, a follower of the Grateful Dead, and a mother and friend not only to her own students but to many other Enfteld High School students. An excellent teacher, Ms. Linda Miller can be found sharing a good laugh, a heartfelt cry, or a confidential moment. Some are always seeking her advice. Her classroom door is always open, and anyturne you walk by her room, she is enjoying the company of "Her" kids. Obviously, she still remembers her youth because she relates so well to her students. The Class of 1995 wishes to dedicate our yearbook to Ms. Linda Miller, who appears "sophisticated" in her tie-dyed shirts, who has a humorous enthusiasm for life, literature and music that has rubbed off on all of us, and who is a remarkable role model. We wish to thank her not only for being one of our class advisors, but also for being our friend. Ms. Miller, you will always hold a special place in our hearts and our high school memories. Thank you, Mills!

All the exchange students of this year would like to thank all our teachers, fellow students, and, of course, our host families. At first we were somewhat afraid of our new country, a new school, and all the new people. But all of you made this a wounderful and unforgettable year for us. Thank you for every day, every hour. We had an amazing experience and gained much knowledge. We wish you the best, and we will always remember you.

When you hang out with friends, it's Okay to raise your glass and cheek. When you're drinking soda, not hard stuff, not been Peer pressure everywhere; drinking's cool, some kids think. Tust follow your head; you are cooler not to drink.

When someone offers you a beer, don't say ya, Don't say may be.
Say lighten up and get the right staff, buby

It takes a long time to get used to the loss of someone we love.
But it's important to remember that when people die, they leave something very special behind—
They leave us memories of many things they said and did.
And as long as we have those memories,
the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds.

Knowing that I'm in my senior year, I would like to epress my feelings and gratitude to each and every one that tone way or another was always there for me. When I me to Enfield High, all I knew were two or three words of nglish.

All my teachers have a very special place in my heart, uf I will remember them all.

Primeramente yo quiero mencionar a una persona que no blo ha sido mi profesora, sino mi gran amiga y consejera, i "angel guardian" — Ms. Donna Lyons. No tengo dabras para agradecer lo que usted hizo por mí. Dios me endigo poniéndola en mi camino, muchas veces me he eguntado ¿qué sería de mí sino la hubiera conocido? Ms. yons, la voy a extrañar, usted es muy especial para mí. La viero mucho.

Mr. St. George, me gustó mucho poder haberle ayudado n su Español, y gracias porque usted me ayudó mucho con i English. Gracias por su ayuda.

Mr. Saint George, I liked to be able to help you with your Spanish, and thank you for helping me with my English. Thanks for your help.

Mr. Prunty, my counselor, thank you for all the time that you have given to me. You were always there to listen to me. Thank you.

Mrs. Michael and Mrs. Valente, thank you for your friendship and your constant help. I thank you also because you were the people that taught me my English.

Mrs. Jones, Mr. Rossi, and Mr. DeFilipe, thank you very much for your help and for all of your patience.

Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Light, Ms. Porcello, I appreciate all of your help very much.

Mr. Gallucci and Mr. Gray, you have all shown great interest and great caring for all the students at Enfield High School. Thank you very much.

— Myriam Villamil S.
